This public hearing is continued from the April 12th meeting.

Mr. Gavin had concerns regarding noise, batteries, loss of farmland, herbicidal use, hunting and discount on their taxes.

The developer, Mr. Friedman:

There is some noise near the sub stations which will have noise barriers around them.

There are not batteries will be stored on site.

At the end of this solar cycle, all the land will be turned back into farm land.

There is no use of herbicides, weed control will be wild flowers that grows certain heights.

Hunting is private

They are not asking for a discount on Taxes

Jason Gansz currently has a two year lease on the land to grow crops. Mr. Friedman was not aware of this, but asked to have a private meeting with Mr. Gansz to discuss options.
